The 21st Regiment.

The Gallipolis Journal of the 6th inst., says the 21st Reg. O. V. M. removed to Camp Carrington on Friday tast. It is located on the farm of Mr. Stephen Barlow, north of Gallipolis, and but a short distance from the corporation limits. It contains about 35 acres of land beautifully situated at the base of the hill, and in view of the Ohle river. Genry's Lapy's Book, July 1861; L. A. Gedey, As the ground was in wheat and cate, it will re-As the ground was in wheat and oats, it will require some time to render it smooth and in good order, but the rapidity with which the officers have gene to work, will soon overcome all difficulties.

When we consider that the regiment was sent on without tents or camp equipage, and deficient at all prises the six best numbers of the year, and will or Johnny. Stick to it doctor, and if our Governments in military equipments, the progress made is astonishing. The officers seem to be straining eventually as a state of the large double extension fashion-plates, and all the winter are very barren.—Reformer, Trenton, N. J. 5wl without tents or camp equipage, and deficient at all ry nerve to render their men comfortable. It is cleak patterns. true that in some respects they have not entirely succeeded, but the fault seems to be with those at the head of the various departments at Columbus, and not with the regimental company officers. In another place we give a list of the companies and officers, and such other information as our country readers might desire to have.

A dress parade will take place in the camp every day at 4 P. M., to which all are invited, and as Capt. W., the prince of good tellows, told us, the ladies especially. If there is anything in which the citizens of Gallipolis agree, it is in conceding to the 21st regiment of Ohio Volunteers, the highest praise for their good order and decorum they have observed during their stay in town,

Soldiers are generally supposed to be licentions, greatly feared the presence of a thousand strangers in our midst as tending to disturb the quiet of our town. Never was there a greater mistake. The officers and privates of the 21st regiment have shown their good sense and good breeding, by observing the strictest sobriety, the most polite and gentlementy bearing toward our citizens, and in all respects ucting so entirely contrary to the pre-conceived notions of our citizens, that we have heard many express regret at their going into camp at all. It is to be hoped it will continue thus, and however long or short their stay among us may be, when parting does come, both citizens and soldiers will have the proud satisfaction of knowing that each class has faithfully discharged the duties incumbent upon them, that our sitizens will emleavor to sustain the good opinion of the regiment, and the memthe most pleasant part of the campaign.

P. S .- Since the above was type, we learn that Col. Norton's regiment is ordered into Virgiuia .-Their destination is supposed to be Charleston, Kanawha county, about fifty miles up the Kanawha civer. A $250,00 horse was forwarded on to Col. N. A Trip to Tiffin,

During the past week we availed ourselves of a fin. On our way we conversed with several farmers concerning the crops, and learned that there was a prospect in some localities for an average yield, Wheat, in several places was going into chaff, and in others the wevil had made its appearance and threatened to destroy whole fields. Corn generally tooked well, and we have several fields where it was at least twelve to eighteen inches high.

At Titla we found business quite dult, and, not unlike other portions of the country, the principal of the country. The principal of the country of the principal of the country of the principal of the country of the principal of the country. threatened to destroy whole fields. Corn generally,

"We live for those who leve us-For the Meaven which smiles above us, And which we are hastening to."

So sing the Hatchinsons in one of their touching disorderly, and lawless, and many of our citizens heart-songs. The thought may for a moment arrest the attention of a few who listen to its utterance in melody, but the masses hear nor heed it not. They Hamilton seem to live as though life had no great purposano higher aim than the gratification of selt. Those in the crowd are justling each other-floresty, atmost, and treading down each other-to reach their wall of distress are unbeeded. Gain gain is the maddened cry, Gold and lands for to-day, for topoor and despised. Samaratins turn aside to bind up the bruised and wounded unfortunates. Stock in Heaven, brings no direct dividends in money, Lending to the Lord will not add two per cent, per month to the yearly accumulations. Such seems to be the common understanding. Men act as if life were an eternity. But the night cometh. There bers of the regiment who survive, on returning are graves to fill and worms to fatten. Wealth finds home, look back to the time epent at Gallipolis as no exclusive privileges under the sed, or " over the river." Honds, mortgages, and stocks, are not current in the "hereafter." No "sharp practice "--ne "shrewd business transactions"—there. No extortionary per cents, for those who have entered into an inheritance which fadeth not away .- No poor bruized heart-have been left in the grave, and the paupers of earth become the owners of Heaven Oh! how often we have thought of what might be few spare moments to make a "flying visit" to Tir. the feelings of the rich, the pompous and the proud when they see those they seemed here, robed in the unfading and dazzling fabrics of eternal angel life.

Jeromeville, Ashland Co., Chin, Nov. 20, 1860.

Mesers, J. N. Hannes & Co., Cintinnati, Ohio. Gentlemen:—I deem it a doty as well as a pleasure, to inform you what Dr. Weaver's Syrup and Uerste has done for me, and hope that this letter may come to the notice of persons similarly afficted; in the year 1850 I was attacked with tetter, or some kindied disease, on both my logs, which extended until from my kness to my feet was one raw sere. I committed and obtained medicines and prescriptions from nearly all the physicians in this vicinity, but obtained no relief. Your agent at this place, air. Heliman, recommended me to try the Syrup and Cerate, which I fertunately did, and am now a sound and scell man by their use.

With great gratitude, I remain. Yours truly.

JOHN WEIRBAUGHT.

Mr. Wentrught being a well known gentleman of Ashland, makes this information most reliable. By taking the Syrup as directed, it will drive the d seases from the system, and when once out on the skin, a few application of DR. WEAVER'S CERATE, OR OINTMENT, The Cerate has proved itself to be the best Oint-ment ever invented, and where ence used, it has never been known to rail of effecting a permanent curvet old acres, tetter and ring worm, scald head, chillblains and frost bites, barber's itch, chapped or cracked hands or ilps, blotches or pimples on the free. And for Sore Nipples and Sore Kyes, the Corate is the only thing required to cure. It should be kept in the bouse of every family.
